CLEAN POLITICS BILL THEME OF SENATE DEBATE

Many Democrats Fight Against Extension of Hatch Act

Washington, March 9.—(AP)—Opponents of the Hatch bill to curb the political activities of approximately 500,000 state employees marshaled their forces today in an attempt to postpone senate action indefinitely.

They hoped to forestall a show-down vote until the measure could be laid aside for the time being in favor of the $958,000,000 agriculture appropriations bill.

Senator Minton (D-Ind.), a leader in the fight against the Hatch measure, predicted that a majority of the senate would agree to vote on both the farm bill and the administration's reciprocal trade agreements program before it acted finally on the anti-politics bill.

What opponents hoped to gain was more time to rally their forces against the proposal of Senator Hatch (D-NM) to extend the present ban on political activity by most federal employees to those state workers who are paid in whole or in part with federal funds.

Senate Democratic ranks are split wide apart by the measure and, as their party squabble continued, Republicans looked on gleefully.

Republicans Aid Barkley

The Republicans, who have voted solidly against every proposal to weaken the bill, came to the rescue of Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, late yesterday when Senator McKellar (D-Tenn) attempted to override Barkley's wishes and adjourn until Monday.

This motion, which would have delayed action, was beaten, 34 to 30.

McKellar's unsuccessful move was made a few minutes after Barkley, his face white with emotion, had told complaining Democrats in a hastily-called cloak-room conference that if they sought to force a party caucus on the question of killing the pending bill he would make his leadership an issue by offering his resignation.

Guffey Sees Destruction

Senator Guffey (D-Pa) told the senate today that the measure to extend the Hatch law "would be the most destructive piece of legislation for the two-party system ever written onto the books."

Guffey said he had always believed in the two-party system, but that the pending legislation to restrict political activity would make possible "bi-partisan control" by monied interests.

The bill, he said, would "eliminate the two-bit and two-dollar party contributions" and would not prevent influential persons not connected with the government from making large gifts.

Its passage, he added, would give additional political power in Pennsylvania to such men as Joseph P. Kamp, Ernest T. Weiler, M. L. Annenberg and "Joe Grundy's Manufacturers' Organization."

When Guffey had finished speaking Senator Thomas (D-Utah) urged that the legislation be broadened to impose curbs on the political activities of those seeking public office and employment, as well as those holding public jobs.

At one point Thomas asserted that the Hatch bill would prevent political machines from perpetuating their power.

Earl Prince and Companion Hurt in Aurora Crash

Earl Prince, 45, owner of Prince ice cream castles in Dixon and a number of other northern Illinois communities, yesterday afternoon was taken to his home in Sterling from St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Aurora, where he and James W. Zbinden, 26, also of Sterling, had been taken for treatment of injuries they received in a traffic accident in Aurora Thursday noon. Zbinden, who suffered numerous cuts, from which he lost about two quarts of blood, and a possible brain concussion, is still in the Aurora hospital. Mr. Prince's cuts and bruises were not as serious as those sustained by his companion.

The men were injured when their car was struck head-on by a large stock truck and trailer, driven by Erwin Shaw, 27, of Sugar Grove, an employee of Carl Thuroff of Big Rock. Shaw was arrested by Aurora police and booked on a charge of reckless driving. He was released on bond, pending the recovery of the two victims.

Dixon Man Takes Life While Wife Is at Neighbors'

George W. Carpenter suicided at his home, 1315 Third street, yesterday afternoon, while he was at home alone. He had been in failing health for several weeks, and after Mrs. Carpenter left the home to attend a social gathering at the home of a neighbor, went to the garage, closed the doors and started the motor of his automobile.

Mrs. Carpenter returned home about 3:30 o'clock and when she received no response to her calls to her husband, discovered that the motor of the automobile was running in the closed garage. She investigated and found his lifeless body seated behind the steering wheel.

The body was removed to the Melvin funeral home where Coroner K. B. Segner conducted an inquest at 10 o'clock this morning, the jury finding that death resulted from monoxide poisoning while the deceased was temporarily despondent over ill health.

Mr. Carpenter was born in Ogle county, Nov. 1, 1876, and had made his home in Dixon for the past 24 years. Surviving are his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Florence Lake of Beloit, Wis.; one son, V. L. Carpenter of Dixon, and three grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Grace Beck of near Polo, Mrs. Blanche Bender of this city, and five brothers, Frank B. of Freeport, Martin L. and William of Chicago, Bruce M. of Rockford, and Harry C. of Dixon.

Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the pastor, Dr. F. L. Blewfield, officiating, and interment will be in Oakwood.

ALMOST CONVINCED

Moline, Ill., March 9.—(AP)—The Harold Anderson family is about ready to believe that the cats that live in their home have nine lives.

One cat lived for 20 years but his brother, Michael, has just observed his 21st birthday anniversary. He is part Persian, part alley, the owners said, and the oldest cat in the city.

CAUSE OF STARVATION

Youngstown, Ohio, March 9.—(AP)—The emaciation which caused the death of Mrs. Mary Zukro Saxon, 61, relief client, was due to a glandular condition that prevented her getting the full benefit of her food, her physician said today after a thorough study of the case. Mrs. Saxon's death was attributed to starvation in statements yesterday by two physicians who had attended her.

BULLETIN

London, March 9.—(AP)—A reliable informant said tonight that Sweden had advised the British government that allied intervention in Finland, if it is sent, must be on a large scale or else Sweden will make every effort short of war to forestall the transport of allied troops across its frontiers.

On the other hand, this informant said that a considerable force, for instance a full army corps of around 80,000 men, would be "gratefully welcomed by the Swedes, especially if accompanied by ships and planes."

Presumably this was the way Sweden, which took the initiative in the present negotiations between Russia and Finland, posed the alternative to a costly peace for Finland.

Previously Sweden had announced it would permit no foreign troops whatsoever to cross its soil. Now, today's informant stated, it has told Britain that a force of ten or twenty thousand men and men for Finland would be but "a drop in the bucket"; that any assistance must be in the form of a "considerable force."

By The Associated Press

A drive for peace between Soviet Russia and Finland today threw Europe into a tangle of diplomacy.

Intricately snarled by the issues of peace or continued war in the north were involved ramifications of the British-French-German war.

In the confused and many-sided picture these developments stood out:

Sweden asserted she had acted as a go-between—and as a go-between only—to establish contact between Russia and Finland on Russian terms for peace and that the stage now had shifted to Moscow, or possibly Riga, for final negotiations.

Russia was reported to have demanded that her terms be met without a preliminary armistice.

Stork Has Hand

Kankakee, Ill., March 9.—(AP)—Coach James Laffey of Bradley high school thinks the stork has a hand in drawing up basketball schedules just to save him the agony of a "paternity ward."

The coach returned from a sectional tournament at Joliet, where his team trimmed East Aurora last night, and found Mrs. Laffey had given birth to a son.

Two years ago when his team was playing in another tournament his wife presented him with a son.

Missouri Posse Finds Teacher's Murderer Today

Shelbyville, Mo., March 9.—(AP)—An all-night hunt for the slayer of Mrs. Ethel Dingle, a school teacher, ended before noon today with the capture near here of a man Sheriff Elmer P. Threlkeld identified as Hadley Eaton, her former suitor.

Surrounded in a heavily timbered section 3 miles northeast of the city by a posse of 50 officers and armed citizens, the suspect shot himself in the abdomen with a shotgun.

He was brought to a hospital at Shelbyville where it was said he probably will live.

After shooting the attractive 30-year-old divorcee with a shotgun, the assailant drove his auto a short distance then fled into a dense wood on foot.

He approached Mrs. Dingle's automobile as she was preparing to leave school shortly after 4 p. m. yesterday and fired eight blasts into the machine. One shot struck and slightly wounded her companion, Mrs. Merritt Keith, also a teacher, and another grazed the arm of School Superintendent Clell Ledford, who was seated in another machine.

Darkness Halts Hunt

The sheriff and other officials trailed Eaton to the woods north of here, but because of darkness and the nature of the terrain delayed a search until this morning.

A small barn on the Harry Forman farm, three miles northeast of here, was burned about 4:30 a. m. today and Threlkeld theorized Eaton had taken the following course since the vanished into the timber:

Worked east along the North river about five miles; cut south another five miles to where the barn was burned on a farm neighboring the home of Mrs. Dingle's mother; then continued on south and west towards more traveled roads.

Hear Shot in Woods

The state patrol, which brought bloodhounds to aid in the hunt, reported hearing a shot from the wood—between the villages of Plevna and Epworth—but there was no explanation of it.

Mrs. Sam Varner, who lives near Plevna, told Sheriff Threlkeld she saw a man stop his car near their home late in the day, don overalls and over shoes, shoulder a gun and walk down a country road.

Mrs. Dingle was shot in the head, the charge shattering the windshield of the car. She was the mother of a 5-year-old son. Friends said she had dated Eaton before her marriage to Paul Dingle and after their divorce about three years ago.

Eaton, about 32, who had not lived in the vicinity recently, was driving a car with 1940 Illinois license plates issued in Galva, the patrol said.

Perseverance

Wausau, Wis., March 9.—(AP)—Perseverance may be a good trait but it led to the arrest of Seth Trumbull, 18.

The youth pleaded guilty at his arraignment yesterday on a charge of operating a car without the owner's consent.

Sheriff Ralph Gunzel told Judge Frank B. Regner the boy told him this story:

Trumble broke into a garage here and took a car for a joy ride. The car got stuck in a snow bank. He went back to the garage and took out a wrecker. He backed the wrecker up to the first car. The wrecker also got stuck. He went back to the garage and took a milk truck to pull out the other cars. The milk truck likewise got stuck. He went back a fourth time and there was only one truck left. He took that, and, you guessed it, it took got stuck. He walked home.

When officials came to investigate someone mentioned seeing young Trumble driving the third, or perhaps it was the fourth truck. His arrest followed.

He was ordered bound over to Circuit court for sentencing under $300 bond.

Wide Search for Clues Under Way in Dixon's Loop

Dixon merchants are busy themselves far into the night these days, marking new stock which is arriving daily for the outstanding fashion display in Dixon's retail year—Spring Opening. The event will officially open at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, with lighting of windows which will carry their gayest displays of the year.

A Goodwill Treasure hunt, a novel new feature planned by the retail trades division of the Chamber of Commerce's 76 participating merchants, is arousing widespread interest. Residents throughout the Dixon trade area are hurrying to respond to the invitation of co-operating firms to call at the stores for "clues" to be used in the hunt on Wednesday evening.

In a special Spring Opening edition of The Telegraph on Tuesday, advertisements of the various firms will give in detail the quality and prices of the very latest and finest in all lines of merchandise which will hold the center of attention during the event.

DIVORCEE KILLS SECOND WIFE OF FORMER HUSBAND

Ex-Spouse of U. S. Army Colonel, in Jail, Will Tell Nothing

Columbia, S. C., March 9.—(AP)—Answering all questions with "I don't remember" or "I can't tell you," Mrs. Mae (Masie) Walker Burleson, 51-year-old artist and one-time suffragette leader, was detained by police today after she shot and killed her former husband's second wife.

The matronly Galveston, Texas, divorcee, hiding an old rusty revolver in a black bag which matched her modish apparel, walked into a hotel cafeteria at the lunch hour yesterday, and shot Mrs. Richard C. Burleson, wife of a U. S. Army colonel stationed here, in the back.

Mrs. Burleson, who before her marriage to Col. Burleson in 1938 was the widow of Frank W. Knowlton, Boston lawyer, was sitting alone at a table in the crowded cafeteria. The divorcee quickly walked around in front of the table and fired again, while patrons gasped in astonishment.

Coolly, without a word, the first Mrs. Burleson followed a hotel official who escorted her to an office, where she waited until police arrived. Then, for hours, she refused to divulge her name, and kept mumbling something about wanting to see her mother, who died two years ago.

Sent Victim Telegram

Mrs. Burleson was held in the woman's section of the city jail with a matron in attendance.

Police exhibited a telegram the second Mrs. Burleson received December 9, which read as follows: "Mrs. Richard Burleson

"Name for purpose of Div. (delivery) only

"Jefferson hotel

"Mrs. Knowlton, with all you took because I was too sick to defend my home against you and even though you sent my mother to her grave in grief, you could not take the many years this day gave to me. You can never take them. The wicked flourish like the green bay tree. May God have mercy on your soul!"

Paws, Hazelwood Pet, Breaks Through Ice in River and Drowns

Paws, the hugh and kindly St. Bernard dog, pet of Justin Jr. and Peter Dart at Hazelwood, the Walgreen estate near Dixon, was drowned in Rock river the other evening when he broke through the ice and was unable to save himself. Paws had been with some workmen on the estate while they were cutting wood during the afternoon and then he went exploring on the ice. He crossed the river once and coming back struck a weak spot in the ice and went through. No one saw the tragedy but when he was missed a search was instituted. His body was recovered and they found the big animal had torn his claws off in his desperate efforts to get out of the water onto the ice again. Paws, the friend of every visitor at Hazelwood, is buried there.

Flash Lights

Boston March 9.—(AP)—New "flashlights of surgery," described as opening a new field of surgeons operating at the front line in Europe's war zone or in cities subject to air-raid blackouts, were exhibited today to the New England Hospital Association.

They are surgical retractors—struments used to keep wounds open to light during surgery—but instead of being made of metal, they are of a transparent, plastic material (plexiglass) through which light from a 10-cent flashlight bulb in a detachable handle is "piped," without reflection, into the operating field.

Exemplary Conduct for Decade Wins William P. Sabel Priceless Reward

Springfield, Ill., March 9.—(AP)—William P. Sabel's exemplary conduct during the past 10 years has earned him a priceless reward.

He won't have to go back to the Huntsville penitentiary in Texas, from which he escaped a decade ago.

Governor Horner's office said it would be "an injustice" to send him back in view of his respectable life as a Chicago restaurant and hotel supplies salesman in the interim.

The governor refused to sign extradition papers yesterday, leaving Sabel free to return to the wife and two children he acquired since he left prison.

Apparent Suicide

F. LYNDEN SMITH

Director of the state department of public works and buildings, who was found dead in a bathtub in St. John's hospital in Springfield this morning, the Sangamon county coroner declaring the death "looks like suicide." Mr. Smith, who had many friends in Dixon, last visited the city last October, when he spoke at the dedication of the Abraham Lincoln bridge and the Dixon armory. Story in adjoining column.

Paw Paw Youth Is Fatally Hurt Beneath Truck

Wilbur Ketchum, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ketchum of Paw Paw, was crushed to death beneath an automobile truck at about 12 o'clock last night, two miles west of Paw Paw. George Yenerich, who was reported to have been driving the truck, and his passenger Claire Parker, escaped with only minor injuries.

Yenerich and Parker left Paw Paw just before 12 o'clock to drive to Compton and young Ketchum was said to have been allowed to ride in the truck, a light pick-up type of vehicle. About two miles west of Paw Paw, the truck crossed a concrete culvert, then apparently swerved from the road, hurled a ditch and crashed into a bank of dirt.

According to reports, Ketchum, in the back of the truck, was pinned beneath the body when the vehicle overturned. His chest was crushed, causing death within a short time. The body was removed to the Torman-Hill mortuary at Paw Paw where an inquest was scheduled this morning at 11:30 o'clock. Assistant State's Attorney was to attend the inquisition and question the witnesses.

The victim of the crash had lived in Paw Paw the greater part of his life. Besides his parents, he is survived by one sister, Vera, and four brothers, Robert, James, Irving and Jesse, all of Paw Paw. Funeral services are to be conducted at Paw Paw Monday with burial at that place.

Youth Admits Story of Kidnap Plot Imagined

Los Angeles, March 9.—(AP)—A 19-year-old youth has admitted, police say, that what was feared to be a plot to kidnap Judy Garland, young film star, was nothing but a figment of his imagination.

Police Psychiatrist Dr. Paul de River says that Robert Wilson, transient youth held on suspicion of kidnapping, told him he "just wanted to meet" the young actress.

Wilson was arrested Thursday night after officers said he telephoned police that Miss Garland would be kidnapped.

De River stated Wilson admitted that "a guy named Foster," with whom he insisted he had plotted the kidnapping, was fictitious.

Police Captain Grover Armstrong said that if the district attorney's office does not issue a will be turned over to the psychopathic detail for observation.

BODY OF PUBLIC WORKS DIRECTOR FOUND BY NURSE

Prominent State Official Has Cut Throat Thurs- day Coroner Says

Springfield, Ill., March 9.—(AP)—Director L. Lynden Smith of the state department of public works and buildings, was found dead today in St. John's hospital. Coroner W. L. Drago said Smith had attempted to take his own life two days ago in his home by cutting his throat.

"It looks like suicide," the coroner said, "because I was advised by Mr. Smith's physician that he cut his throat in his home here in Springfield on Thursday. He was admitted to the hospital at 7:30 p. m. Thursday."

Smith's body was found immersed in a bathtub in a bathroom at the hospital. He arose about 6 a. m. to shave. He was partly shaved when found. The coroner said his head was under water in the tub.

Smith, who formerly stood high in the administration family of Governor Henry Horner, took a leave-of-absence a month ago and went to Claremont, Fla., for his health. He returned only Thursday, his presence known to only a few friends. He did not go to his office.

Inquest Later

Coroner Drago said he understood Mrs. Smith was at the residence Thursday when the reported suicide attempt occurred but that she was in Pontiac today. The coroner said he probably would release the body to a Pontiac undertaker and conduct an inquest later.

Dr. George H. Fleischel, said Smith, who was 44, was under observation for a mental depression both in Florida and since his return. The doctors said whether Smith died of his own hand or of a heart attack was "problematical."

Smith, who managed the downstate campaign for the Horner forces in 1936 and 1938, had fallen from favor in the official family circle, according to statehouse reports.

He also had been involved in criticism and legal action over the fund-raising activities of the Illinoisans, Democratic party group, control of which he had relinquished to state Finance Director Sam Nudelman.

Smith was scheduled to appear at 10 a. m. today for testimony regarding disposition of funds which a highway policeman, Sylvester Steskal, charged in an account.

Four Killed, Two Hurt in Crossing Crash Last Night

Champaign, Ill., March 9.—(AP)—Three teen-aged boys and a girl were killed and two girls critically injured last night when their car ramed into a coach of a Big Four passenger train as they were returning home from a gay skating party.

The dead, all of Mansfield, 28 miles from Champaign, were: Milton Willis Warren Jr., 17, son of the Platt county farm bureau federation president; Robert Carmichael, 14; Charles E. Sizer, 15; Norma Ruch, 15.

The injured, who were taken to Burnham hospital were Atha Coppenhaver, 15, and Corine Hendrickson, 17.

The high school group had been skating at the University of Illinois rink and were homeward bound when the car, driven by Warren, hit the baggage coach, the second car, of the eastbound train.

The impact tossed the automobile 150 feet, derailed the baggage and mail cars and tore up large sections of track. Crews worked four hours to put the track in order.

Edward Haller, Indianapolis, engineer, said he saw the car approaching the crossing on the west side of Champaign, could not determine how far away it was, and whistled warnings. The crossing is protected by warning signs. None of the train crew or passengers were injured.

Next Sunday morning, the pastor will present the most unusual witness yet to be examined by this Lenten series. It is the testimony of Saul of Tarsus who started out to wipe Christianity off the map and lived to become its greatest exponent. Hear this thrilling story. The largest crowd of the series was present last Sunday, 234. The roll call of the pastors was made and members received by each respondent. The oldest in point of membership was Mrs. Amelia McConaughy, who joined under the ministry of Rev. S. H. Weller in 1868—seventy-three years ago.

To Present Operetta

Tuesday night, March 12 at 7:30 at the high school gym, the pupils of the Mt. Morris grade school will present their operetta, "White Gypsy," under the direction of Miss Helen Low Miller. The scene of the operetta opens in a forest where a fiesta is in progress. The gypsies are reprimanded for enjoying themselves while their chief has been thrown into a dungeon by "Kink," brother of the Gyros, a white people, whose domain includes the forest. The Kink, (Bill Silvius), has seized the throne, driven the king (Paul Fraxert), from the palace and locked the princess (Betty Manis), in the tower. She escapes and flees to a gypsy camp and thus provides a thrilling story to be portrayed by the cast of grade school students. Gypsy material for this operetta was gathered from much study of the gypsies and gypsy lore, and music of Europe, Mexico, America and first-hand contact. Several melodies adapted from Brahms' Hungarian dances are used in the production. The music for this production was written by G. A. Grant-Schaefer and the libretto by Theodor Payer. Others appearing in the cast are Wesley Reid as Kom, a prince of royal blood; Jola, Kom's mother, Phyllis Lizer; Romany Rose, Kom's wise grandmother, Jean Allen; gypsy chief, Harold Downing; Quinn, dancing maiden, Jean Linglie; Kom's two companions, John Barton and Jim Rohleder. Other parts are taken by Harry Yoder, Bill Messer, Dick Knodle and Harold Palmer, and choruses of Gyros, gypsies and others. Miss Miller is assisted in this production by Miss Thelma Mott, script; Miss Virgil Turner, costumes and dances; Miss Jane Locke, accompanist; Ed Hill and Merle Hawbacker in charge of the stage, and H. A. Patterson, business manager.

GOOD LUCK PIECES

Salina, Kans.—(AP)—There are people who think the left hind foot of a rabbit is as sure to bring good luck as a four-leaf clover.

So there should be plenty of luck for a Salina firm which has the left hind feet of 27,000 jack-rabbits purchased with rabbit hides this winter.

In case you might want one, they are free for the asking with this reminder from the management: "They didn't bring the rabbits any particularly good luck."

Miss Jane Ford, Fred W. Moore, Exchange Vows

Miss Jane D. Ford, twin daughter of the William Fords of 305 East Fellows street, and Fred W. Moore, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore, Sr. of Hennepin avenue, were married this afternoon in a simple nuptial service at the rectory of St. Patrick's Catholic church. The Rev. Father James J. Burke heard the vows at 2 o'clock.

The bride's twin sister, Jean, was her only attendant, and Lewis Moore served his brother as best man.

The bride wore a navy blue frock with white trim and navy accessories. Her sister was dressed in powder blue with navy accessories. Their corsage bouquets were of roses.

Following the ceremony, the bridal pair motored to Oregon, Ill. to receive the blessing of the bride's pastor, the Rev. L. E. Conner, before departing on a brief wedding trip. Some time next week, they will be at home in an apartment at the Harry Snader residence, 415 East Eighth street.

Mrs. Moore was graduated from Dixon high school in 1937, and from Lorene's School of Beauty Culture. She is now associated with her sister at Elizabeth's Beauty Shop.

Following his graduation from Dixon high school in 1935, the bridegroom attended St. Viator's at Bourbonnais, Ill. for two years, and at present is employed in the office of the Illinois Northern Utilities company.

Climaxing a series of pre-nuptial parties given for the bride, since recent announcement of the couple's approaching marriage, the Misses Anna Marie Crabtree and Mary Jane Lambert were co-hosting at a bridge-dinner and a kitchen shower Thursday evening at the former's home.

The Misses Jayne Tofte and Jean Ford were fortunate in the card games. Individual corsages of sweetpeas, forming a center bouquet for the refreshment table, were favors for the eight guests.

DIXONITES HEAR IONIAN SINGERS

Among Dixon Concert League members traveling to Freeport last evening to hear the Ionian Singers were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hoefer, Mrs. William Barthelme, Mrs. David Crawford, Mrs. Louis Leydig, Mrs. Orval Gearhart and son, Orval Jr., Mrs. Collins Dysart, C. C. Lund, and the Misses Ruth Leydig, Virginia Jane Lund, Lolla Quick, Ruth Dysart, and Gladys Jamison.

The male quartet delighted a large audience in Consistory auditorium, where they sang under auspices of the Freeport Co-Operative Community association.

BIRTHDAY CLUB

Two members of the Happy Birthday club, Mrs. Curtis Pittman and Mrs. DeLora Stanley, were complimented Thursday evening at the Pittman home. Games and appointments at the refreshment table were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day.

Prizes in contests were won by Mrs. Mildred Ryan, Mrs. Caroline Nellis, Mrs. Ruth Scholl, and Mrs. Olive Bradford. There were also gift packages for the guests of honor.

Head Cast in Loveland Operetta

"The Forest Court" Scores Hit With Young Dixonites

In these days of complicated and complex living and thinking in real life and on the stage, it is a bit refreshing to spend an hour with the imaginative and naive. About 500 Dixonites took advantage of just such an opportunity last evening, when pupils of the Loveland grade school presented their fairy opera, "The Forest Court," in the Dixon high school auditorium, under sponsorship of the Loveland Parent-Teacher association.

The charming story, with its underlying theme of conservation, was beautifully presented under the capable direction of Miss Marian Lawson, assisted by Miss Helen DeBray, and a corps of other teachers and mothers. Skillfully-played piano accompaniments were Miss LeVina Johnson's contribution to the success of the performance.

Edward Enichen, playing the title role, Tommy, succeeded in completely throwing himself into the part of the thoughtless little boy who—without knowing the meaning of the word, "conservation," muddies the forest spring, unroots a young tree, switches off flower tops, and is generally destructive.

Falling asleep, when a crowd of other children with whom he is picnicking go to the other side of the hill, Tommy is visited by fairies who plot to teach "the mortal" a lesson by casting a spell and showing him the harm thoughtless pranks can bring to forest folk. His trial in the forest court of solemn Judge Owl, with Spirit of the Stream and the flowers as witnesses was a high point of the performance.

Dean Coss and Peter Brenner, wearing cunning brown suits and

Orchestra Concert

The Dixon grade school orchestra, an organization composed of 60 or 70 young musicians, will be heard in concert in the Dixon high school auditorium on Friday evening, May 3, according to an announcement made by Orville Westgor, orchestra director, following the musical prelude for last evening's presentation of the operetta, "The Forest Court."

peaked caps, were properly mischievous elves. Pearl Lambert gave an outstanding performance as the Spirit of the Stream. She wore a pale green costume and carried a silver fish on a miniature pole.

Donna Dogwiler, as the little blue bell, spoke her lines with naturalness, when protesting that Tommy had torn her blue dress. Betty June Bain appeared as the hare bell, Peggy Coursey was a buttercup, Frances Oran was dressed as a bright red poppy, and Margaret Wernick was impersonating a daisy. Nancy Brenner was a winsome Silver Wings, and Mildred Kobler was gracious in her role of the little white-robed Fairy Queen.

The costumeing throughout was most effective, and the task was no little one, with such characters in the cast as a Cheer-Up Cricket, mimably portrayed by Jack Dennison.

Oregon Student Wins Honors in Beauty Contest

One of the five "most beautiful, most distinguished and best appearing high school girls in the middle west" is the title carried away by Norma Behler, Oregon high school senior, in a contest held last week in Chicago for the purpose of selecting the most outstanding, 17-year-old high school student in the United States.

The story of Miss Behler's part in the contest is almost "stranger than fiction." At Christmas time, the student posed for a photograph at a Sterling studio, presenting the pictures as gifts to friends.

Some one, who prefers to remain incognito, learned that a contest was being conducted by a Chicago newspaper to select the most promising "starlet" of 17, and Miss Behler's picture was entered with her knowledge.

The young woman's first intimation that she was one of those selected, came last week, when she received a wire asking her to report at the Palmer House in Chicago. Arriving in Chicago, she found herself competing with between 7,000 and 8,000 of the most beautiful girls in the middlewest. Susanne Thompson of Chicago, the final winner, has been awarded a trip to Hollywood, a substantial prize, as well as an opportunity to become a screen star.

Miss Behler has been rewarded with a scholarship in the Chicago Art school and was immediately engaged as a model by a well-known Chicago department store. She plans to devote only part of her time to modeling, however, until her graduation from high school in June.

The Oregon student, who is a daughter of Mrs. Myra Popkins of Sterling, is also an accomplished singer and dancer. As a child, she modeled for four years in a Decatur, Ill. department store. Points on which she was judged in Chicago were beauty, personality and ability to demonstrate her talents to best advantage.

D.H.S.P.T.A. Plans Program

Members of the Dixon High School Parent-Teacher association are announcing their March meeting for 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening in the high school music room. The evening's program will include piano duets by Marilee Burns and Alice Hintz, whistling numbers by Nadine Gaios, and a review of the book, "The Yearling" by Mrs. W. S. McColey, faculty member.

The book review is expected to be of special interest to the father, as it relates how a father educated his son. Jack Marshall and Donald Huffman will impersonate the father and son, assisting Mrs. McColey.

Paw Paw Woman Gives Book Review

Appreciative applause filled the Dixon high school music room yesterday afternoon, following a review of the book, "World Without End," (Stoyan Pirivkivich), by Miss Lora Miller, president of the Paw Paw Woman's club. Sixty-five women were in attendance for the program, presented under auspices of the literature and library extension department of the Dixon Woman's club.

Miss Miller, a graduate of Northwestern university where she majored in English, speech and dramatics is a former faculty member at North Park college in Chicago. She described "World Without End" as presenting the past and present of the Balkan countries, sometimes called "the land of sunshine and romance," and said to be unforgettable by those who have visited them.

The Balkans have been desired by the powers of Europe, especially the oil wells of Rumania, Pirivkivich, a native Yugoslavian, wrote his book in an effort to give the world a better understanding of the countries, and to plead for democracy in the Balkans.

The countries' primary fascination Miss Miller believes, lies in the development of innumerable obstacles and hardships of a group of civilizations including Greeks, Croats, Serbs, Bulgars, Rumanians, Czechs, Slavs and Turks, living side by side with much in common, but each with its strong local traditions—artistic, literary, religious, political, and social. The story, she told her listeners, makes a most readable addition to one's knowledge of the "powder keg" of Europe.

Smart rain wear will give the comfortable feeling of being well-groomed, even when low-hanging skies really give down. A finely tailored coat with fly front closing, high neck, raglan sleeves, is made of rubberized seersucker in cheerful criss-cross checks in unusual color combinations—navy and mauve, green and wine, red and gray. And umbrella to match, of course.

ARE PRESENT AT NATIONAL FORUM

Mesdames Earl Auman, president of the Dixon Woman's club; Mrs. J. R. McDaniel, vice president, and Mrs. Lester Street, past president, returned Thursday evening from Chicago, after attending a two-day session of the National Forum at the Palmer House. The Illinois Federation of Women's clubs and a Chicago newspaper sponsored the meeting, at which Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar of Washington, D. C., president of the General Federation of Women's clubs was guest of honor.

Mrs. William T. Bruckner, president of the Illinois Federation, was general chairman. Special themes for the six sessions were "Youth and the American Home," "Democracy and Religion," "America, Present and Future," "Industry and Science," "America Articulate" and "Government and Peace." Clifton Utley, director of the Chicago council of Foreign Relations, served as master of ceremonies.

DIXON UNIT

Dixon unit of the American Legion Auxiliary has planned an all-day meeting for Wednesday. Sewing of carpet rags will begin at 10 a. m., to be followed by a scramble luncheon, continued sewing until 2 p. m., and a round table discussion.

JUNIOR DRILL TEAM

The junior drill team of the American Legion Auxiliary will hold a reorganization meeting at 4 p. m. Monday in the Moose hall.

Form P.T. A. at Carbaugh School

Patrons of the Carbaugh school met Thursday evening for organization of a Parent-Teacher association. Officers elected were:

President, Evelyn Geldean; vice-president, Gertrude Ryan; secretary, Elaine Kranov; assistant secretary, Ethel Deltz; treasurer, Ethel Deltz; program and publicity chairmen, Mrs. Celesta Ackert, Mrs. Evelyn Kranov, and Mrs. Ted Knoll; hospitality and membership chairmen, August Schulte, Fred Schulte, Don Geldean and John Ryan; social chairmen, Mrs. Ted Knoll, Mrs. August Schulte, and Mrs. Fred Schulte.

Mrs. Ethel Deltz presided during the business meeting. The second Tuesday of each month is to be the regular meeting date.

Following the opening song, "America," Mrs. Coral Lambert presented an explanation of P.T. A. work. The next meeting is scheduled for March 19.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY

Tables were formed for bridge, 500, and pinochle at the benefit card party sponsored Thursday evening by the Monday Nighters club in the G. A. R. hall. Mrs. Otto Witzleb and Mrs. Otto Beier were fortunate in bridge, Roy Fisher and Mrs. J. F. Watt received favors in 500, and John Edous and Mrs. W. A. Howe were awarded prizes in pinochle. Mrs. Ned Gianoni was given a guest favor. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

In all this talk about colors for spring, don't overlook the fact that lots of black coats will be made . . . and lots of them will be worn. In most instances, however, they will be a part of an ensemble with contrasting frocks—prints, bright colors or pastel crepes, or one of the new tissue sheer wools in subtle off shades such as the aqua blue. The all-black shoe is naturally first choice. It may be patent, pigskin or calf with gabardine. A few of the all-over black shoes will have a touch of brilliant color in piping, bow or stitching. Black with vine red is a sparkling choice. Chamois with black is stunning. The color full stepin of crushed leather is another smart possibility. In hoisery, Arbutus, Bugle, Victory, and other light rose shades predominate with this color of fabric and shoe.

A clever new lapel watch with a military air is fashioned in the shape of a tiny drum, wide-striped in red, white and blue, with two miniature drum sticks, swung on a slender chain from a plain bar pin—a neat, yet colorful, gadget for your spring tailleur or smartly fitted reefer.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and detested, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

Green Misses a Bet

William Green, president of the A. F. of L., and his associates are passing up one of the best chances they ever had to enlist sympathy for their cause. Instead of conceding that abuses do exist in the building trades unions and offering to help the government's anti-trust staff to clean up the rackets, Green has decided to fight Thurman Arnold, assistant U. S. district attorney and instigator of the nation-wide investigation into building trade irregularities.

It's not altogether satisfactory to have someone else point out the rubbish in your own backyard; but, if that's what has happened, the most graceful thing to do is to concede that it is there and to offer to remove it. The racketeering and dishonesty that has crept into the A. F. of L. was inevitable and is not the fault of the millions of honest men and women and the dozens of honest labor leaders in the organization. The refusal of the leadership to assist in getting rid of the rubbish, however, necessarily reflects unfavorably upon the rank and file.

The present attack is not directed solely against union men. Contractors and building supply men are also being made targets. The announced purpose of the entire probe is to "clean out" the industry, which means that the broom will be applied wherever there is dirt.

What Mr. Arnold hopes to accomplish, and what has already been done in some places, is to reduce building costs. When the excess prices are trimmed off, more people will build homes and more union men will get jobs.

It is not an invasion of democratic rights to indict and punish men guilty of fraudulent practices. If building prices are too high because some contractors and some union men are entering into collusion, prospective home-builders and union craftsmen, who are directly affected, have a right to know about it.

Candor in Congress

Senator Vic Donahey (Dem., Ohio) is quitting Congress next year, after having served since 1934. His colleagues will remember, among other things, that Donahey was the Man Who Didn't Understand—and said so.

It was in 1938, when the Senate was voting on a complex farm bill, that Senator Donahey got up and said he was voting against it because he didn't understand it. Shocking words for a statesman. Whether they really do or not, congressmen are supposed to know everything.

It may have been heresy, but Donahey got away with it. Few others have ever dared try it, although there probably was never a legislator in Washington who fully understood every measure that was laid on his desk. There might be fewer "mistakes" if more congressmen candidly admitted they didn't understand and acted accordingly.

Fifty Men Tackle Unemployment

In a sincere and non-partisan effort to get at the root of unemployment in the United States, 50 congressmen from both parties are getting together in Washington, meeting periodically, appointing committees to do research.

The committee, formed by Democrat Jerry Voorhis of California, does not function as an adjunct of Congress, and the members, including 16 Republicans, are meeting independently of their normal duties.

It is a noble undertaking, one that is going to cause lots of headaches before the members have concluded their studies. But the group out not consist merely of 50 congressmen, working in their spare time. There should be 535 legislators—every member of Congress—seriously concerned with the one problem that today threatens American security. Unemployment affects every person in the country. It is only logical that all the senators and representatives should concentrate on doing something about it.

No Trade for Germany

After six months of war, Germany's overseas trade has been completely cut off. She must depend for her supplies and her export sales almost entirely on trade pacts with Central Europe and Comrade Stalin.

Germany undoubtedly expected that to happen. She could hardly have planned to keep her trade routes open after formation of the blockade she knew the British would throw around her coast. Yet, when the war is over and the blockade no longer impedes ships filled with needed supplies, the cargoes still may not come—not until Germany can furnish real cash for the deals. And honest money, after a nation has finished a war, is not a bountiful commodity.

It's difficult to imagine what Germany can possibly get out of prolonging the struggle—what any nation can get out of it. Only in the minds of the leaders of aggression can the real answer be found.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, March 8.—Before Mr. Roosevelt's finely clipped budget figures have even been acted upon in congress, a confidential government survey has been handed to him by his economists demanding a much greater spending outlay for relief.

The report placed on his desk since his return from the south claims 1,250,000 more persons have become unemployed in the past 60 days, due to the business decline.

The official economists say in effect that unless the president scraps his two-month old fiscal policy, and wrings more WPA money from congress, the relief rolls, now carrying 2,500,000, will have to be cut by nearly two-thirds to $90,000 in July.

Congress no doubt will sniff suspiciously at these figures if and when they get out of the president's desk drawer. The congressional leaders have successfully contradicted similar estimates of prospective WPA needs in the past. But at least this time the Harrington WPA regime, unlike the former Hopkins management, is not politically campaigning for funds.

Colonel Harrington, the WPA Administrator, has not specifically asked the White House for more money and will make no demands upon congress, but he will lay his pessimistic statistics before congressional committees when he appears shortly at hearings on appropriations for the next fiscal year beginning 1941. These hearings have been put off, but may start in two weeks.

The spenders nevertheless are pressing the president, urging him to send up a supplemental message to congress openly demanding a deficiency appropriation immediately.

The president dug such a large escape hole for himself in his budget message that he could without verbal embarrassment ask for more money. In his message he said his estimates and needs were based on continuing good business. At that time industrial production was 128, today it is about 105.

Unemployed numbered 9,000,000 when the budget was submitted. The Roosevelt economists now estimate the figure at 10,500,000 and predict it will go to 12,000,000 in July.

But the president's embarrassment otherwise would be great, because his whole fiscal plan was so tightly drawn that an increase in relief outlays would scrap the whole budget program and raise the question whence the money is to be derived.

For this reason presidential advisers are uncertain whether Roosevelt will let Harrington carry the hod to congress or whether he will undertake the leadership himself. The fine political angle involved is whether there are more votes in economy or in relief.

The Kelly-Nash machine is passing word back here that a tremendous effort will be made in Illinois to roll up a huge unneeded Roosevelt majority in the primary in order to injure the candidacy of Vice-President Garner. A Chicago congressman has told his Democratic colleagues the well-oiled city machine expects to accumulate a demonstration vote of 750,000 to 1,000,000 for Roosevelt, and hold the Garner total to a paltry 70,000. Whether it can be done remains to be seen the day after the vote, but the politico-legislators here have respect for the ability of the Kelly-Nash group to count ahead of time just about what they want or need.

The Howard Smith committee program for reforming the National Labor Relations Board caused a ripple of chuckles to run around the inner circle—but not at the White House. Core of the scheme is a three-man judicial board disassociated from a prosecuting administrator, modeled after the set-up of the Civil Aeronautics Authority (you read in this spot 6 weeks ago that this would probably be the committee's recommendation.)

But the point is that Roosevelt for years has been pointing to C. A. A. as the model committee arrangement. So in effect the Smith committee has used the president's own model for a purpose far from what the president would have desired.

The president's fishing trip has brought some entirely new descriptive phrases to fishing lexicography. Presidential Secretary, Pa. Watson, described the fish caught by Admiral Ross McIntire, the president's physician as "a swivel-tailed, slow-finned sea urchin"; his own catch he pictured as "a beautiful 33 pound rooster fish."

The president apparently only caught a third term backlash.

Police Chief of Kansas City Is Indicted Today

Kansas City, Mo., March 9.—(AP)—Police Chief Lear B. Reed was indicted by a Jackson county (Kansas City) grand jury today on charges of oppression in office.

Reed, a former Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, became the head of Kansas City's reorganized police department recently after its control had been wrested from the Boss Tom Pendergast Democratic city organization and taken over by the state. The change had been demanded by Pendergast's arch Democratic rival, Gov. Lloyd C. Stark.

Paul Barnett, lawyer, and Walter Bliss, former investigator for Governor Stark, also were indicted on charges of attempting to influence a grand jury.

Reed's indictment was based on the fingerprinting and photographing for the records of persons who had not been convicted of any crimes. Reed succeeded Kansas City's last machine-sponsored police chief, Otto P. Higgins, now in Leavenworth Federal penitentiary with Pendergast for income tax evasions.

The state legislature, after a bitter battle, changed the police department from city to state control at the urgent request of Governor Stark, who went up and down the state accusing Pendergast of running it in the interests of gamblers and underworld elements.

Instituted Many Changes Reed instituted wholesale changes, including numerous dismissals and demotions, which he said were in the interests of getting the department divorced from politics.

The indicting grand jury was called into session by Circuit Judge Marion Wainwright, who recently threatened Governor Stark with contempt of court proceedings. Judge Wainwright said the governor was unjustified in the remarks he made to newspaper men after the judge dismissed neglect-of-duty charges against a Pendergast county official. The governor ignored Judge Wainwright's demands for an apology and the judge closed the incident with a critical statement.

Barnett, the indicted lawyer, is chairman of the legal group of the forward Kansas City committee, which initiated the movement to oust the Pendergast Democratic machine from control of city and county government.

That movement resulted in a special election last month which ended the terms of the Pendergast council and mayor at the city hall, where the machine has been in power uninterrupted since 1926. Another election will be held April 2 to determine successors.

In another indictment, a policeman of the Reed regime was accused of manslaughter for the slaying of a high school boy who was overtaken while fleeing in a stolen car.

PLAN SPORTSMANSHIP BANQUET

The Royal Cardinals of Dixon are planning a unique sportsman-ship banquet here at St. Mary's hall next Thursday night to fete the Dixon Ducks and their coaching staff. An unusual program is planned and details will be worked out tomorrow afternoon at a special meeting of the club members. The banquet will be open to the public and tickets will soon be on sale for 50 cents. Rumors of pending plans promise a big evening for fans and team alike.

CONGRATULATIONS TO HAWKS

The Oregon Hawks last night bowed to the larger school of Rockford in a game which did nothing to destroy the Oregon prestige. The Hawks had captured the title in the Rock River conference and fought their way to the championship of their regional and into the semi-finals of the sectional. It is a record of which the Hawks' fans may well be proud. Congratulations, Coach Driver and team.

WELL, THAT'S THAT

With Sterling's demise last night in the sectional meet at Kewanee, the last North Central conference team went by the boards and left the league unrepresented in the state basketball home stretch. After Sterling copped the regional here, local fans backed the Brandau-men in their struggles for top fame. Now that it's over we wish to congratulate the rivals on their climb to a spot which made them at least one of the best teams in the state.

BOWLING SWEEPSTAKES

A full house is expected tomorrow at the Dixon Recreation as the first annual Rock River Valley handicap bowling tournament goes into its second week end. Six teams from Elgin, one from Sterling and a local quintet are booked for pin spilling tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Doubles will be bowled at 4:45 and singles at 7 in the evening. Thirty-eight teams are now entered in the tournament and by tomorrow night 11 will have bowled.

STERLING COMMENTS

Dick Smith of Sterling writes us that he predicts Rockford to repeat in the sectional this year. But Dick also said of the Kewanee tourney in his letter postmarked yesterday: "Don't be silly, Sterling of course." Too bad, Dick. He also sends his sympathy on the Dixon collapse at Rockford and adds that the Kewanee Star-Courier has christened the Sterling team the "Warriors." "So I guess the name will stick." "We had a bad night against Galva," he adds, "and they had a good squad for the size of their town. I think we can beat Canton because they put up a terrible showing against Mt. Carroll."

KNACKS TO PLAY IN TOURNEY

The Dixon Knacks, independent basketball champions of Dixon, will play their first game in the Illinois Official Championship Amateur Independent tournament at Hillsdale tonight at 7:30. The local club will clash with the Prince Castles quintet of Sterling. Twelve teams are entered for the event, a preliminary to the Central State Independent tournament. The Knacks will have James Billiards at 6 o'clock.

STREAM OF CONSCIOUSNESS

It may be a form of doodling, that pastime which the psychiatrists study for character analysis, but a Telegraph type-setter was asked to set up some samples of a certain kind of type and pull proofs to see how well they came out. Here are some samples of the operator's self-expression: "For Life of Ease and Gayety Youngsters Should Choose Society or Sports Writing"—ha, ha! Another: "Cubs Win First Contest, 12 to 6"—which will probably arouse the animal in such batters as Willard Jones and Fred Hofmann. And two more: "No Team is Better than Its Scoring" and "Confucius Say: Mebbe Next Year." The latter one seems to wind up for the season all comment on the Dixon Ducks.

ROCKFORD SMOTHERS OREGON; HEBRON RALLIES TO TRIUMPH

GAMES LAST NIGHT

Rockford 48; Oregon 20.
Hebron 40; Freeport 29.
FINALS TONIGHT
Hebron vs. Rockford (8:00).

Until a few weeks ago the little town of Hebron was just a spot on the map to most people, but today it is the most publicized community in the state. Tonight the Davids of Hebron will meet the Goliaths of Rockford as the state basketball interests turn the spotlight on the Armory court at Rockford in the finals of the sectional tournament.

They have tall boys and short boys who give the appearance of Mutt and Jeff, but they're first class basketball players from their shoe soles to the rubber bands that keep the hair out of their eyes. Last night they rallied in the second game of the semi-finals to turn back the Freeport Pretzels, 40 to 29. It was the Hebronites' 29th victory in 30 games.

Measure for Measure

They met the Pretzels with measure for measure in the first quarter which ended in an 8-all knot before the Freeport team forged ahead to lead 18 to 14 at the intermission. With 13 points in the third frame to seven by Freeport the Hebron club tied the count at 25-all as the third period ended.

The winners forged ahead with 15 counters in the last stanza while holding the Pretzels to four and the little town's population (at the game emmass) went wild with joy and began counting the days until the state tournament. That the Hebron team is a remarkable club will stand as a fact even should the boys be defeated tonight by Rockford. They won their medals the hard way, with odds against them.

In their victory last night Johnson, the spark plug scorer of the aggregation chalked up a total of 25 points while Judson contributed 10. Another remarkable fact of the game was that the Hebronites committed only two fouls in the entire game, giving their rivals little chance to profit at the gift line.

In the first game of the semi-finals last night the Rockford Rabs turned back the Oregon Hawks, 48 to 20. It was an easy victory for the home team which had counted a 34 to 24 victory over Dixon to win their way into the semi-finals. Oregon, a team which has been a great credit to the Ogle county seat, found the going much rougher than in the earlier game which the Hawks had snatched from Stockton.

Rabs Score Big Lead

Rockford ran up an unmerciful 18 to 4 lead in the first quarter.

which had the Oregon visitors swamped before the game was very old. In the second frame the Rabs counted five points to four by Oregon.

In the final two periods the winners scored a total of 25 points to 12 by the losers. Alonzo, a member of the state championship team of last year, counted seven buckets and one free throw for 15 points as high scorer. Franklin, Oregon's ace forward, counted six points with one bucket and four charity shots.

South Central of Dixon is Eliminated Last Night by Amboy

GAMES LAST NIGHT
Lincoln 32; Franklin Grove 9

Ashton 17; Harmon 6
GAMES TONIGHT
7:30—Lee Center vs. Lincoln
(Consolation Game)
8:30—Ashton vs. Amboy
(Championship Game)

Four Lee county grade school teams will battle it out tonight in the final games at the Mills and Petrie Memorial gymnasium in Ashton for the three trophies which County Superintendent of Schools John A. Torrens is offering in the first annual tournament.

In the semi-finals last night the Ashton and Amboy teams won the right to play in the championship game tonight at 8:30 o'clock and Lincoln of Dixon will meet Lee Center for third place honors.

On the consolation side of the bracket the Lincoln basketballers routed the Franklin Groves, 32 to 9, in the first game of the evening last night. It was the largest tournament score thus far which the Dixon graders used to eliminate their rivals. Lincoln commanded an 8 to 1 lead at the close of the first period and forged ahead 20 to 3 at the intermission. Frey and Miller each scored eight points for the winners and Heckman and Shaulls counted three apiece for the losers.

South Central Nosed Out
In the second game, on the championship side of the pairings, the strong South Central team, champions of Dixon, were nosed out 12 to 11 by the Amboy basketballers.

South Central scored a free throw for the only counting of the first period and held Amboy scoreless to the intermission while the Dixon team counted five more tallies. Amboy scored its first points in the third frame when the winners rang up eight points and held the Dixon club to a free throw. Amboy commanded the victory with four more tallies in the final period to four by South Central. Hawks of Amboy scored 10 of his team's total and Cramer counted four tallies for Dixon.

Lee Center won its right to appear for the consolation game by thumping Compton in a hard fought victory of 19 to 16. The Lee Center team rang up a 9 to 4 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Lead 15 to 9 at Half
At the half time Lee Center was leading 15 to 9. In the third chapter the Compton club counted four points to two by Lee Center and outscored them again with three points to two in the final stanza.

Carlson, Lee Center forward, scored 10 points for his mates with four field goals and two free throws. Corwin was high point player for the Compton team with three field goals and three charity shots for nine tallies.

In the final game of the evening the Ashton hosts won an easy 17 to 6 victory over Harmon after holding only a one-point lead at the end of the first period. Ashton scored three more points in the second quarter to a free throw by the visitors and led 6 to 3 at the half. Harmon counted three points in the third frame and was held scoreless in the final while the Ashton club scored 11 points in the last two stanzas.

Glenn Cunningham to Run LAST GARDEN RACE TONIGHT

New York, March 9—(AP)—A crowd of 15,000 will come to Madison Square Garden tonight to pay double tribute to Glenn Cunningham, the man who ran the mile into its present eminence on the track and field program, and to Chuck Fenske, who promises to keep it there for at least another year or two.

This, by his own decision, will be Cunningham's last Garden appearance as a mile runner. Next fall, he plans to settle down to teaching. If he runs in 1941, it probably will be as a two-miler.

For his farewell race, he is determined to leave in the fans' minds the picture of Cunningham as he was before his own lack of proper training and an up-coming, younger Fenske combined to shove him back among the also-rans.

WOLVERINES APPEAR HEADED FOR INDOOR TRACK TITLE

Chicago, March 9—(AP)—Michigan's versatile and talented track squad is away and running fast toward the school's seventh consecutive Big Ten indoor title and 12th in the history of the conference.

The Wolverines moved into a pace-setting position in last night's preliminaries although Indiana's Roy Cochran stole the show with a record-breaking 484 performance in the 440-yard semi-finals trials.

Sterling's Loss Ends Conference Hopes in Tourney

The North Central conference saw its last hopes for representation at Champaign next week fade as the Sterling cagers were defeated last night by Canton, 31 to 24, in the semi-finals of the Kewanee sectional tournament. However, the Brandau-men who finished in a tie for second place in the league with six wins and four losses, came through when the chips were down and rated themselves as one of the top teams in the state.

In the second game last night Lewiston won from Kewanee, 34 to 29 and the winners will meet Canton for the finals this evening.

Sterling trailed, 5 to 4, at the end of the first quarter last night and Canton rang up ten points in the second frame to Sterling's five to lead, 18 to 9 at the half.

Sterling outscored Canton, 6 to 4, in the third frame with an attempted rally, but each team counted nine points in the last chapter for the Canton victory.

Clark, playing guard for the winners, scored over half of his team's tallies when he sank six buckets and four free throws for 16 counters. Wolf and Ridge of Sterling each scored six points for the North Central conference basketballers.

Returning Lettermen

Of these Shoaf, Shultz, Weigle, Albert Hoemann, Rambo, McCleary and Mantach are the returning lettermen. Albert Hoemann, who last year scored several records in the pole vault, will captain this year's squad.

Besides being out for the pole vault Hoemann will also participate in the broad jump. Rambo chooses the 440 yard dash and the half mile as his events; McCleary is a high jumper. Mantach works with the shot and discus; Shoaf is out for the high and low hurdles; Shultz for the discus and shot and Weigle for the 880-yard run and the mile.

Other outstanding candidates from last year are Leggett in the 220-yard run and the 440; Cottle in the 100-yard dash and the 220; Vaughn in the hurdles; Williams in the low hurdles and sprints; Travis in the 440 and half mile. Weidman in the sprints. Keith Gordon in the mile and Paul Hoemann in the pole vault event.

Lost to the team by graduation were Captain Russell Bush who ran the hurdles, Ken Henderson who dashed the sprints, Duane Wilson who ran the mile, Ken Rinehart who threw the discus and Earl Page in the high jump. All were lettermen.

and fighting in Finland continued unabated.

The Finnish high command acknowledged a significant success for the heavy Russian forces pounding at Viipuri in southeastern Finland—the seizure of “a restricted foothold” on the north-west shore of the Bay of Culpuri and some islands.

It was pointed out in Helsinki that from the shore position, menacing the rear of Finnish defenses, the Russians could threaten complete encirclement of Viipuri and out-flanking of the Mannerheim line.

More Aid for Finns Indicated

Great Britain and France gave increasing indications they are considering greater aid to Finland, should the current peace negotiations fail, and the controlled French press predicted an expeditionary force if Finland asked for it.

An expeditionary force could land only on the Russian-held Arctic coast of Finland—or more across neutral Scandinavian soil.

Former Premier Leon Blum of France wrote in his newspaper there was reason to believe that if an expeditionary force were decided upon, the allies would not seek “the express consent of Norway and Sweden” for its transportation.

The Finnish situation bulked large among the problems studied by the French cabinet in a two-and-one-half hour session and British ministers also were known to be considering it.

Finance Minister Paul Reynaud went directly from the Paris cabinet session to confer with President Roosevelt's fact-finder in Europe, Undersecretary of State Welles.

Adolf Hitler sent his foreign minister, Joachim von Ribbentrop, off to Rome to confer with Premier Mussolini, Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano and, Vatican City authorities announced, to be received by Pope Pius XII.

Germans Non-Committal

German officials evaded committing themselves on Germany's role regarding the Russian-Finnish conflict or on the significance of the Berlin visit of former Finnish President Per Evind Svinhufvud.

But Rome sources tied together as problems before the axis partners questions of war or peace in Finland, Italy's controversy with Britain over the latter's blockade of German coal, and the possibility of a spread of Europe's “big war.”

Against the assertion of nazis that Germany was on the sidelines in the Russian-Finnish war, fascists expressed belief she was inclined to exert pressure on Russia to soften her terms for peace.

Peace in the north, among other effects on the British-French-German conflict, would contain the possibility of strengthening Germany—through Russian supplies—against the allied blockade.

For her war against Germany, Britain today registered some 300,000 new conscripts for military service.

Library Notes

At a recent session of the library board it was decided to adhere more strictly to the hour that library is open Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. The hours are from 2 to 5 o'clock and Saturday evenings from 7 to 8:30. Hereafter at closing time the door will be locked so that the librarian may not be disturbed in the work of making out the day's records. Since the library has become a tax-supported organization many records are required to be kept by the state organization.

The use of the library has increased quite materially this year. Book circulation the last three months has been over 600 volumes per month, which indicates that the patrons appreciate their library privileges. This slight change in rule is adopted to increase the efficiency of the service and we hope will be so received by the public.

The junior class committees are making plans for their junior-senior banquet and prom. The event is to take place April 26. The orchestra has been engaged and it has been decided when the banquet will be held. More details will be published later.

The first-year home economics girls are now studying home furnishings. They are planning and making furniture for small houses. Mr. Baker and Mr. Shoemaker er were good enough to build the houses for the girls.

We have another competent typist pin.

Clothing class is finishing a cotton garment project.

Work has begun on the junior play, "Mamma's Baby Boy", this week. The play will be given on April 12.

Obituary

Mrs. Lizzie Dierdorff, wife of Rev. D. T. Dierdorff, passed away Saturday, March 2, at their late home in Seattle, Wash. They formerly lived at Minot, North Dakota; Kingsley, Iowa and Franklin Grove. The body, accompanied by the Rev. Dierdorff and daughter Lola, arrived in Franklin Grove Thursday forenoon. Funeral services were held at the Brethren church Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. H. H. Wingert of Kingsley, Iowa, assisted by the Rev. F. E. Wingert of Franklin Grove. Interment was in the Emmert cemetery. Mrs. Dierdorff was an aunt of Rev. A. D. Ira and Earl Buck, of this place.

Family Night Party

Members of the Franklin Grove Woman's club are planning a Family Night party for 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening in the school gymnasium. Junior club members are to be special guests.

The program is to include a three-act play by the Nachusa P. T. A., music by the high school Alumni orchestra, special numbers by the Misses Audrey and Jeanette Miller, and a vocal solo by Georgia Lahman. Lunch will be served, following the entertainment.

The cast of characters for the play includes: Fred Smithie, George Stiles; Mrs. Smithie, Mrs. Harry Weigle; Lucy, their daughter, Mrs. Floyd Missman; Harold Ainsworth, Marcus Gonnerman, Barbara Hanson, Mrs. George Stiles; Mr. Wonder, John Weigle; Mrs. Wonder, Mrs. John Weigle; Jack Bird, Harold Wolf; Hank Webster, Harry Weigle; Evans, the maid, Mrs. Harold Wolf. Mrs. Edward Johnson has been supervising rehearsals.

The Family Night social committee includes Mesdames Alice Schafer, chairman, Ethel Miller, Evelyn Emmons, Myrtle Edgington, Luella Schafer, Ida Lott, Freda Sandrock, Helen Brucker, Charlotte Lahman, and Anna Richwine. Those attending are asked to provide their own table service, and a dish to share. Further plans for the menu may be obtained from the committee members.

Woman's Club

Miss Ruth Miller of Sterling was guest speaker for Monday's meeting of the Franklin Grove Woman's club in the school gymnasium. She presented an interesting demonstration on "Kitchen Planning and Modernization," which included the preparation of several delectable menus.

Using a modern electric range and refrigerator, Miss Miller demonstrated a surface meal, an oven dinner, broiled dinner, and a jello salad, sharing the dishes with her audience. Afterward, the utensils used in the demonstration were washed in an electric washer. Recipes were favors.

The American Homes chairman, Mrs. Gladys Jacobs, presided during the program, which included vocal solos, "Danny Boy," and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling" by June Hatch, accompanied by Mrs. Lucille Kinsley, and piano numbers, "Warbling Valtz" and "Echoes of a Brook," by Jackie Canode.

Mrs. Lorraine Schmucker, the club president, conducted the business meeting. Following the opening song, "America the Beautiful," Donald Baker led the pledge and salute to flag the club collect was read by Winifred Breunier, and the song, "God Bless America," was sung in unison.

Miss Clara Lahman, Mrs. Margaret Patterson, Mrs. Vena Weigle, Mrs. Pearl Dysart, and Mrs. Dora Schafer were asked to compose a nominating committee to suggest officers to be elected at the next meeting. Mrs. Patterson is to investigate the purchase of a flag for the club.

Mrs. Moulton asked the club's co-operation for a public health campaign being conducted by the Parent-Teacher association, in which questionnaires are distributed to school children. A contribution of $1 was voted for the annual cancer fund.

Pussy willows, and an Easter rabbit guarding a nest of colored eggs, were attractive on the refreshment table. Mrs. Gladys Jacobs headed the refreshment committee, with Mesdames Margaret Patterson, Ruth Vocum, Blanche Cryer, Anna Crawford, Almira Burhenn, Mae Burhenn, and Louise Seidell as her co-hostesses.

Prominent Social Worker to Speak in Dixon Monday

Miss Regina O'Connell, director of social service for the Catholic Youth Organization, who will be the guest speaker at the annual Mothers and Daughters banquet of St. Patrick's Catholic parish at St. Mary's hall Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock, has had a most interesting life in her chosen career, and a treat is in store for the ladies and girls of the local parish.

She has had a long and distinguished career in the field of Catholic charity. Beginning with the Catholic Charitable Bureau of Boston, she has had wide experience in social service work. From the Bureau in 1921, she went to the Massachusetts Department of Public Welfare in Boston where she was connected with the Mother's Aid Division until 1925, after which she was employed as a case consultant with the Child Welfare Department of the Diocesan Bureau of Social Service in Hartford, Connecticut. The next few years she spent in the Portia Law School, and after graduating in 1931, became the secretary of the Diocesan Bureau of Social Service in Stamford, Conn. In 1933, she returned to the Bureau in Hartford, this time as executive secretary, a position she held until the next year when she joined the faculty of the School of Social Work at Loyola University of Chicago.

Taught Child Welfare

At Loyola University, she taught child welfare, institutional care of children, public welfare administration, and social security legislation until 1938, when she was appointed director of Social Service of the Catholic Organization. The previous year, in 1937, through a leave of absence from Loyola, she directed a special study of the Child Caring Agencies and Institutions supported in whole or in part by the Board of Commissioners of Cook county, and later became supervisor of field work for the Cook County Juvenile Court.

At the present time, she directs a social service program that is nationally recognized for its effectiveness and service. Organized by His Excellency, the Most Rev. Bernard J. Sheil, D. D., Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago, it includes the famed Big Brother program, the Summer Vacation Schools, the CYO Boys' Hotels, the West Side Community Center, and the Mission of Our Lady of Mercy.

Visited Venezuela

Some of the associations with which Miss O'Connell has been prominently active are the executive committee of the National Conference of Catholic Charities, the American Association of Social Workers, the National Conference of Social Work, the American Public Welfare Association, the Illinois Conference of Social Welfare, and Governor Horner's Committee on Child Welfare.

In June, 1939, at the request of the Venezuelan government, she Patterson, Miss Durkes and Miss Lahman were elected to serve as delegates for the Women's District provisional meeting on Friday at Sandwich, with Mrs. Gilbert as alternate delegate.

Brethren

Sunday school, 9:30 A. M.; subject, "He Washed His Hands." United service, 7 P. M.; sermon subject, "The Power Behind the Scene," music by a united choir; presentation of a picture to the boy or girl bringing the largest number of persons to the service.

The Aid society will meet on Wednesday. The intermediate choir is to practice at 7 p. m. Wednesday, and the adult choir, at 7:45.

The intermediate department is planning an Easter luncheon for 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening. A special speaker will address the men's organization Friday evening, and there will be special music by the men.

MAIDEN AT DAWNING

Famed for his plane-and-camera coverage of hundreds of great news events, Joe Boyle, NEA Service's "flying cameraman," produced this striking photo-painting of the super-liner Queen Elizabeth, silhouetted against the rising sun. Boyle flew 50 miles out to sea off Long Island to snap this and other pictures of the world's largest ship as she neared the end of her dramatic maiden voyage from England.

Plan Dedication

Plans have been completed for two special services to be held to dedicate the improvements at the Christian church here. A total of $1,500 has been spent in making changes at the edifice.

There will be two services held Sunday, March 10, at 10 A. M. and 2:30 P. M. The following building committee planned a most complete improvement: Henry I. Stahler, Fay Barnhart, Loyd Van Lovell, Leslie Scott and Austin Stahler.

Dinner will be served in the church dining room at noon.

The services are as follows: Prelude, Roxana Marteney, pianist.

Call to worship. Congregation standing. The Lord is in His Holy Temple.

Silent devotion and invocation. Response, Gloria Patri, 308. Scripture reading, selected. Communion hymn, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross."

The Lord's Supper. The elders will have charge.

Offering. Prayer. Hymn of adoration, "Coronation."

Dedicatory sermon, "Why We Build the House of God," Rev. L. V. Lovell.

Hymn of invitation, "All the Way My Saviour."

Dedication vows by the congregation.

Dedicatory prayer. Special gifts offering. Doxology. Benediction.

Afternoon service, 2:30 P. M.: Hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers."

Prayer. Special music, Miss Ruth Wolf of Lanark. A group of selections on the chimes.

Hymn, "Praise Him! Praise Him!"

A symposium, "The Program of the Church."

"The Necessity for Worship."

OWES $2,000,000?

Rationing of Beef to Start in Great Britain

London, March 9 — (AP) — Butcher shops were piled high with extra supplies today to meet Britain's demands for their last unrationed week-end beef.

Beginning Monday meat will go on the food ration list started nine weeks ago with bacon, butter and sugar. At present average prices, the weekly individual allowance of about 36 cents worth will buy one and three-quarters pounds of meat.

COED DRESSES ON 19 CENTS

Austin, Tex. — (AP) — A college girl can be well dressed for as little as 19 cents a day.

Only one girl out of 80 questioned at the University of Texas home economics department was able to accomplish it, however.

She spent $70 for clothing in one year; the group average was $230 and the greatest expenditure was $730.

The girl who spent $70 bought four dresses, two of wool, one linen, and one silk; two wool suits, a tweed coat and a sweater and made four blouses and slips.

She paid 69 cents for gowns and 79 cents for hose. Two pairs of shoes cost $4.98 and $1.50.

The girl with the $730 wardrobe had 12 daytime dresses, five evening gowns, 16 pairs of shoes, seven hats and six purses.

SUB-COMMITTEE OF SENATE ADDS TO FARMER FUND

Votes to Add $211,000,000 to Appropriation Made by House Action

Washington, March 9.—(AP)—The nation's farmers, told by President Roosevelt last night they had not yet reached the goal of economic and social justice, watched the senate appropriations committee today to see whether it would approve a proposed multi-million dollar increase in the annual farm appropriation.

Late yesterday, a sub-committee jolted the congressional economy drive by raising the appropriation to $958,000,000 — some $211,000,000 more than the amount voted by the house—and by providing that an additional $100,000,000 of agricultural outlays should be financed by loans.

Leaders of a bi-partisan bloc from the farm states predicted that this program would be approved by the full committee today. The committee's O. K. would send the measure on to the senate for action Monday.

Enactment of the enlarged appropriation would offset the bulk of the cuts, totaling nearly $300,000,000 which congress has made in the president's budget estimates in an effort to avoid imposing new taxes in this election year. Roosevelt told the legislators early in the session that $460,000,000 of new levies should be imposed to finance "emergency" defense expenditures.

The president, who recommended a farm appropriation some $67,000,000 larger than that passed by the house, broadcast to dinner meetings of farmers in the agricultural states last night on the seventh anniversary of the inception of the new deal farm programs.

"Non-Partisan" Speeches

To the farmers gathered at 50 and 75-cent dinners in 22 mid-western, southern and far western states, Roosevelt declared the war abroad had made it "more than ever important for farmers to have a government in Washington that is looking out for their interests—not just by uttering glittering generalities but by specific policies and concrete action."

He spoke of the farmers' "long hard struggle" to get laws and programs which would give them an opportunity to obtain economic and social justice, and added:

"I am happy in the thought that American farmers have gone part way along that road to economic and social justice even though they have not reached the goal."

Secretary Wallace and Postmaster General Farley also spoke by radio to the farm meetings, which were described by administration spokesmen as "non-partisan."

"No Politics" in Program

The agriculture department chief, who advocates a third term for the president, said Roosevelt was the "greatest friend" the farmers ever had in the White House. Farley declared the farm program had received "nearly universal support" because its administration had been kept out of politics.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), who presided at closed senate hearings on the agriculture appropriation and will direct action in the senate chamber, said senators on the sub-committee agreed upon a $212,000,000 fund for parity payments to farmers. These would be designed to assure farmers as much purchasing power as they had in 1909-14.

He said there was similar agreement on $85,000,000 for removal of surplus farm products.

State Buys Equipment for Normal U. Library

Springfield, Ill., March 9.—(AP)—The state division of architecture and engineering today awarded contracts totaling $52,725 for equipment in the library of Illinois State Normal University at Normal.

A contract for $18,262 for furniture, museum cases and metal equipment went to Remington Rand, Inc. Volland Scenic Studios, St. Louis, was awarded a $1,995 contract for draperies. Contract for $1,833 in special furniture was awarded to Globe Furniture Company, Chicago, and the Newton & Holt Furniture Company won the contract for shades and rugs with a bid of $584.

GET 'JOY' PACKAGES

London.—(AP)—The Britisher at home now can send post-free "joy" packages to interned relatives and prisoners of war in Germany.

They will be repacked by the British Red Cross, which has advised senders to stick to knitted goods, shaving gear, tobacco, and bar chocolate. Other food, games, and books are banned. Packages will be censored.

Each prisoner is allowed one 11-pound package every three months.

Seek Negro Who Shot Down Chicago Officer

Chicago, March 9.—(AP)—

Police today searched for a youthful negro gunman who last night shot and seriously wounded Police Sergeant Michael J. Curtin, former bodyguard for Major Edward J. Kelly, in a mysterious attack on a south side street.

Curtin was in the Chicago hospital with four bullet wounds, two in the abdomen, one in the right lung and one in the left arm. Physicians said he had an even chance for recovery.

Curtin, in civilian clothes, was on his way to work when the gunman leaped from behind bushes and fired four times at close range. The officer fell to the sidewalk, drew his revolver and emptied it at his assailant. Police said a trail of blood was found three blocks from the scene, leading officers to believe Curtin had wounded the youth. The shooting occurred in 48th street near Drexel boulevard, a short distance from the officer's home.

Curtin, who is 46, had been on the force since 1919 and has won 14 creditable mentions.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

CHOOSING
O happy is the man who hears
Instruction's warning voice,
And who celestial wisdom makes
His early, only choice.
—Michael Bruce.
Choose the best way of life, and habit will soon make it pleasant for you.
—Pythagoras.
A well-governed mind learns in time to find pleasure in nothing but the true and the just.
—Amiel.
The objects we pursue and the spirit we manifest reveal our standpoint, and show what we are winning.
—Mary Baker Eddy.
It isn't the man who knows the most, but the man that knows the best, that's wisest.
—Anon.
From now, guard your thoughts, for if it is true that yesterday's wrong thinking gives birth to the trials of today, it is equally certain that today's right thinking will generate joy for the morrow.

Gov. Phillips of Oklahoma Fights War Department

Oklahoma City, March 9—(AP)—
Oklahoma's Governor Leon C.
Phillips, aggressive champion of state's rights, demanded today that the federal government halt work on the $54,000,000 Denison dam pending a test of the project's constitutionality.

Phillips said that if Secretary of War Woodring permitted construction work before a court decision he would take steps to stop it.

"We can bar the highways to prevent material reaching the dam or stop it in other ways by use of police, the courts and everything."

He added he would not "need the military."

The governor's demand came after an oil strike in the reservoir area promised to boom land values.
Army engineers are directing preliminary work on the big flood control-hydro-electric project which would inundate 100,000 Oklahoma acres.

Cities Split Decision

The governor, in a letter to Woodring, recalled the United States Supreme court's recent 4-4 split on the question of granting Oklahoma permission to file an original action to determine constitutionality of the act authorizing the Denison project.

"By an equally divided court," said Phillips, "leave to proceed originally in that tribunal was denied. No further judgment or order was entered and no opinion was rendered. We are, therefore, left just where we were before that proceeding was instituted.
x x x"

"Oklahoma denies the constitutional authority of the United States x x x to condemn land or flood state property, or to use or interfere with the waters of the Red river or Washita river, Oklahoma streams, for the building of the Denison project."

Phillips added that Oklahoma intends "with all the means at its command, to protect its rights against what it is convinced will be an unlawful invasion and destruction."

Predict House Passage of Smith Changes for Wagner's Labor Statute

Washington, March 9—(AP)— Supporters predicted today that the Smith committee's proposals to amend the Wagner act would be passed by the house at this session, but they refused to guess whether the senate also would approve them.

"In my judgment, the house will accept the Smith amendments in toto", Rep. Cox (D-Ga.) told reporters. "Once we get them up on the floor there will be much debate but they will go through."

Seventeen changes in the law were proposed Thursday by a majority of the special house investigating committee which spent three months studying the law's operation.

Major amendments would create a new national labor board and separate the board's present administrative and judicial functions.

The proposals were referred automatically to the house labor committee. That committee's chairman, Mrs. Mary T. Norton
(D-N.J.), said last night that it would have been "much more honest" for the investigators to propose repeal of the Wagner act.
